

GREEN-KELLY.

A quiet home wedding was solemnized Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Green, Twenty-seventh and Monroe avenue, when their daughter, Alice, became the bride of William A. Kelly. The ceremony which was performed at seven o'clock by Rev. William W. Fleetwood of the Church of God, was witnessed only by members of the family and two of the bride's chums, Misses Florence Conroy and Florence Thomas. The bride wore a becoming costume of brown silk.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly left for Salt Lake City, where they will spend a few days and after September 15, they will be at home at Monroe and Twenty-seventh street.

DELIGHTFUL EVENING.

Miss Beatrice Pingree and Ruth McEthern very delightfully entertained twenty-four of their young friends on Wednesday evening. It was planned that supper be served on the lawn at the home of Miss McEthern, but owing to the heavy rain the lawn had to be abandoned, and a two-course supper was served by Mrs. Pingree and Mrs. McEthern assisted by Misses Zola Pingree and Lillian Halverson, in the spacious dining room of the Pingree home. Partners for supper were chosen by matching the name of a vegetable, that had been spiced. An amusing penny contest was indulged in, Miss Leah Pardoe winning first prize and Miss Eva Leck, second.

Those present were: Misses Eva Leck, Gladys Ballantine, Leah Pardoe, Marion Bichel, Helen Bichel, Bertha Purche, Mary Spencer, Ardel Browning, Alta Brown, Vera Frey, Beatrice Pingree, Ruth McEthern, Messrs. Norman Bohn, Ray Belnap, Lohar Packard, Willis Leck, Paul Leck, Samuel Leck, Robert Leck, head, Robert Boyd, John Pingree, Walter Biddle, Eugene Pratt, Robert Major.

MONAHAN-MORTENSON.

A large number of friends and relatives gathered at the Twenty-seventh street last evening to witness the marriage of Miss Katherine Monahan and Alvin P. Mortenson. The home of the bride was prettily adorned with cut flowers, when at eight o'clock the young couple were united in wedlock with the best wishes of their friends. Rev. J. E. Carver officiating. After the ceremony the company sat down to an elaborate wedding supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortenson have a wide circle of friends in Ogden, who wish them a long and happy life, and many of them attended the beautiful and expensive reception last evening, in token of their regard.

Mr. Mortenson holds an important position with John Seaworth & Sons Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortenson will be at home at 202 Twenty-third street, after October first.

TIN WEDDING.

Among the social events of the week was the celebration of the tin wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walters at their home on Third and Second street, last Wednesday evening. The amusing feature of the affair was the marriage ceremony, which was performed by a farmer justice of the peace, Mr. Thomas Lundy, one of the guests.

The evening was very pleasantly spent in social chat and music, and refreshments were served. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Bache, Mrs. W. G. Hampton, Mrs. Hurst, Mrs. M. L. Thomas, Mrs. Lundy, Mrs. Maryette Griffin, Mrs. Marzetta Manzelli, Mrs. Joe Wessler, Mrs. Geo. Seamon, Mrs. Everett Lyman, of Idaho, daughter-in-law of Mrs. M. T. Lyman.

COOK-CHRISMAN.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening, at the residence of Dr. P. A. Cook, when Miss May S. Cook and Mr. James A. Chrisman were married. Rev. Carver officiating. Miss Cook was a member of last year's high school graduating class and has a host of young friends in the city. After the ceremony all present sat down to a tasty wedding dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Chrisman will spend a month in the Northwest and upon returning will make their home in Green River, Wyoming, where Mr. Chrisman holds an important railway position.

"WELCOME HOME" PARTY.

Elder Chas. T. Jones of Hooper, who returned recently from a twenty-four months' mission in England, was given a "Welcome Home" party in South Hooper meeting house by his relatives of Hooper, and his many friends of South Hooper. There was a large crowd in attendance to greet Elder Jones, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. The program consisted of solos, duets, comic songs, recitations and dancing was carried out, after which refreshments were served.

FAST NOBLE GRAND CLUB.

The past Noble Grand Club was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Meld.

Those present were Mesdames Randall, Bogart, Koons, Turner, Wind, Wardleigh, Tyree, Royal, Meyers, Lansing, Rosenbluth, Beck, Baker, Sawyer, Miss Bogart.

The usual game of high-five was played, the prizes being won by Wardleigh, Mrs. Wind and Mrs. Randall. After the card game a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

HARRIS-MILNS.

Last Wednesday evening, at the home of Mrs. G. W. Driver, 230 Twenty-ninth street, was solemnized the wedding of Harry O. Milns and Miss Blanch Harris. The bride is one of Ogden's efficient teachers. She was beautifully gowned in a dainty, pink crepe de chine and carried a silver bouquet of sweet peas. The groom is one of the popular clerks of the R. M. D. between Ogden and San Francisco. The bride was attended by Miss Maud Johnson and the groom by T. W. Clancy, A. P. of R. M. S.

THORSTED-OHLSON.

Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Beyer, No. 126 North Washington avenue, occurred the marriage of Albert A. Ohlson to Daisy K. Thorsted. At a quarter before eight o'clock the bride and groom, attended by Mr. and Mrs. Beyer, took their places under the arch, where the ring ceremony was used, by Rev. H. D. Zimmerman, of the First Baptist church. After congratulations had been extended, the guests sat down to a most elaborate wedding supper, one of the prominent features being a bride's cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ohlson will remain in Ogden for some time, when they will remove to Vallejo, California, where the groom has a good position as machinist in the navy yard.

MILNS-HARRIS.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the Methodist Parsonage on Wednesday night, September 8th, by Rev. G. W. McCreery. The contracting parties were Mr. Henry O. Milns of the Railway Mail Service and Miss Blanche Harris. Mrs. Milns has been one of the teachers in the public schools of Ogden and while her friends thought that she had returned to Ogden to continue that avocation, she had other plans. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Driver attended the couple, who moved at once into their home on Madison avenue.

FOR MISS WATSON.

Miss Ida R. Watson, who, for the past three years, has been the efficient deaconess of the Methodist church of this city, has been assisted to the home of the First Methodist church of Salt Lake City and left Thursday for her field of labor. As a token of appreciation the ladies of the church gave a farewell in connection with the prayer meeting Wednesday night.

Following the meeting a social hour was spent, and refreshments served. Many of her friends in and out of the church were present.

SALT LAKE AND STATE NEWS

SHEEPMEN MUST PAY UP BEFORE OCT. 1.

Old Judgment Must Be Satisfied According to Decision of the Committee.

An ancient matter was threshed out at a meeting of a committee appointed by the old Utah Wool Growers' association, an association distinctly separate from the Utah State Wool Growers' association, at a meeting held Wednesday morning.

Away back in 1905 a judgment was obtained against the Utah Wool Growers' association for something in the neighborhood of $7,000.

The committee, which was appointed last February, was really that representing the sheepmen's central committee, a committee appointed to devise ways and means of collecting money from the delinquent members of the association so as to satisfy the judgment of $7,000 against the old Utah Wool Growers' association.

This is in accordance with the information supplied by Thomas W. Jones, chairman of the committee. The committee discussed the matter with the board of directors of the old association and those who own or represent the owners of the old judgment.

The owners of the old judgment, according to Mr. Jones, are Attorneys James H. Moeke and Henderson, Lindsay R. Rogers and Street & Rogers. The judgment is for legal services, and an agreement was made that whereby each individual member of the old association should pay his or her individual assessment of the judgment and that they should be released from further obligation.

The date fixed by the committee to make final payment of all delinquencies was October 1. Those who fail to discharge their obligations by that time will be liable to a separate suit to recover their part of the original judgment and costs.

REPORTER ATTACKED BY FOUR FIREMEN.

Gordon Snow Has Unwelcome Experience—Keith Resigns.

Salt Lake, Sept. 10.—As the result of an attack on Gordon Snow, a newspaperman, on duty at the police station, by four firemen, at 2 o'clock Wednesday morning, in which Snow was knocked down, bitten in the left arm, and held under a heavy stream of water until he became nearly unconscious, resigned Thursday, one of the firemen, resigned Thursday, and the other three, Carl Odenwalder, Thomas Owen and Victor Day, must face charges that have been preferred against them by Snow, on the grounds of drunkenness and assault and battery.

Action in the matter has been deferred until the arrival of Fire Chief Glorin from the east.

The four firemen were giving Frank Williams, another fireman, what is termed "the initiation," and Snow was standing by with a book under his arm. The firemen, after finishing with Williams, turned on Snow and repeated the performance.

Keith, Thursday night, told Snow that he regretted his part in the affair. Keith stated that he knew nothing of a plot between the other firemen and several police officers whose brutality had been exposed by the newspapers, to "get" Snow. Keith stated that he entered into the "initiation" of Snow merely as a hazing prank, and earnestly disclaimed any knowledge of a frame-up to run Snow off the job on the police run.

Snow was satisfied with Keith's explanation of the nature of his connection with the affair, and, in consideration of Keith's frank attitude, it is possible that Keith will be reinstated in the fire department without protest.

tion of Keith's frank attitude, it is possible that Keith will be reinstated in the fire department without protest.

OFFER BRANSFORD PLACE OF HONOR

Salt Lake City, Sept. 10.—A committee representing the Democratic party of this city waited on Mayor John S. Bransford this afternoon and asked that he accept the nomination for mayor on the Democratic ticket. Previously a committee representing the citizens' movement approached Mayor Bransford with the same end in view. The mayor is reported to have informed the committee that he would be glad of their endorsement were he nominated by the American party, under whose political banner he is now holding office. It is expected that the American party will nominate Mr. Bransford, although it is known that the "inner circle" does not approve this course, for the reason that Mayor Bransford has repeatedly refused to "stand hitched" to the post set for him by the men who comprise this inner circle.

The Democrats, at a meeting held in the office of Moyle & Van Coten Thursday evening, decided to put a ticket in the field with Bransford at the head. This course would be entirely proper, as Mr. Bransford is a staunch Democrat in national politics. The nomination was offered to Richard P. Morris, who was formerly mayor of Salt Lake, but Mr. Morris declined, saying that Mr. Bransford ought to head the ticket.

The other names on the Democratic ticket are: For attorney, J. S. Stringfellow; for auditor, Will Bateman; for recorder, A. N. McKay; for treasurer, Joseph E. Caine.

FUNERAL OF AARON THATCHER.

WAYWARD GIRL SENT TO INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

Father of Geraldine Dunder Says She Would Not Stay at Home.

Salt Lake, Sept. 11.—Geraldine Dunder, the 15-year-old wayward girl found fighting with another girl in a Chinese noodle joint on Commercial street about 1 o'clock Friday morning, was arraigned in the juvenile court Friday afternoon and ordered committed to the State Industrial school.

The commitment was at the request of the girl's father. The young woman ran away from a good home about two months ago and refused to return. Much of the time the father knew little or nothing of her whereabouts. She has been rooming at the Belmont and the Orpheum rooming houses and walking the streets at night, it is said. The charges against her are growing up in idleness and crime and being delinquent.

Two girls, one 15 and the other 17 years old, were charged with immorality, but will be given another chance. A boy, 15 years old, charged with frequenting a pool room, was also allowed to go on probation. If the bad young folks do not keep in the straight and narrow path this time severe punishment will probably be meted out to them.

ARNOLD LARKER IS GUILTY OF CONTEMPT

Ordered by the Court to at Once Deliver Certain Effects to His Wife.

Salt Lake, Sept. 11.—Arnold Larker, whom Mabel C. Larker, a thirty-year-old woman of severe mind, is suing for divorce on the grounds of cruelty, was found guilty of contempt in Judge Morse's division of the Third District court yesterday afternoon for failure to comply with the court's order of August 31 to deliver Mrs. Larker's personal effects over to her when she called for them at 644 South West Temple street, but was told that he would be purged of contempt if he delivered Mrs. Larker's things to her at 56 Pollard court that afternoon free of expense to her.

As a result of the court's order, Larker went out and hired a dray and, into the morning business temporarily, by 8 o'clock all Mrs. Larker's things, which included three night gowns, were gathered up and transported to her in Pollard court, and when Larker presents himself before Judge Morse at 10 o'clock this morning and reports he probably will be discharged.

TOPHAM CASES CALLED.

Salt Lake City, September 10.—Four cases against the Citizens' Investment company were called this morning in the district court and were set for arraignment for September 15 at 10 o'clock a. m. Two criminal cases against Dora B. Topham, president and general manager of the company, were set for the same time. All were the outgrowth of the building and occupancy of the late stockade.

NOVELTY JEWELRY.

Is it proper to wear novelty jewelry? Yes, but only while it is in vogue, and never under any consideration, should it be worn with an elegant costume. There are odd little brooches, the pins, belt buckles, hatpins, cuff sets and chains that are really quaint in their Oriental colors and dull metals, and they can be worn with house or street costumes at times. Gray, green and gold pieces are much favored at present, and some of the shapes are very neat.

LORD ROSEBERRY DENOUNCES BUDGET

Glasgow, Sept. 10.—Lord Roseberry today cut himself adrift from modern radicalism as exemplified by the house of commons in a "straight talk" to the business men of the north vehemently denounced the budget and its authors.

The former premier's speech had been awaited eagerly by those opposed to the budget and it was expected to give a lead to those who would furnish a platform for a fight for a general election on which the moderates of all parties would be able to foregather.

Lord Roseberry prefaced his remarks by saying that he intended to express his unadorned opinion without quips or cranks, and characterized the budget as "a revolution which put the future of Great Britain in the melting pot and which in the best interests of the nation should not become law."

He declared that the true result of the budget would be a "straitened increase in the ranks of the unemployed through a great depletion of capital. The arguments advanced for taxing land applied logically to consols and all other forms of realized property."

Scores of millions were lying idle in the banks at the present moment, owing to the apprehensions regarding the government's financial policy which proposed to treat all landlords as pariahs. If the Lloyd-George budget was the only alternative to tariff reform, Lord Roseberry declared, many would be forced to defend the doctrine of free trade. He said the government was dallying with Socialism which was the end of all things.

Lord Roseberry's speech was discussed keenly in the house of commons and the prevailing opinion in the house was that the budget was a "straitened increase in the ranks of the unemployed through a great depletion of capital. The arguments advanced for taxing land applied logically to consols and all other forms of realized property."

ARE MAROONED BY FLOOD IN MEXICO

The flood situation in the northern part of the state of Tamaulipas, in spite of the fact that the flood sufferers in the state of Tamaulipas are receiving their first relief.

News of a number of marooned Americans reached here today.

The Presbyterian mission school at San Juan, has been cut off since the flood. A party under the leadership of W. A. Ross went to the rescue.

The pulpits and teachers are reported to be safe although suffering from want of food.

A party of Americans consisting of J. E. Goddard and his mother, Stuart Ryan of Oklahoma, and Hugh Coker, all reached Linares yesterday evening after a six-day trip in an ox cart from the Santa Ana ranch, where they had been starving. The ranch was completely inundated. The Americans took refuge on a nearby hill, escaping with little more than their clothes. Mr. Goddard was the last to leave the ranch and he had to swim to get to the hill. The party was without food or shelter for three days.

An expert horticulturist and specialist in orange culture from Los Angeles lost his life in the flood. It has been impossible to ascertain his name. He was drowned on the Hacienda De Conejo, in the Tamaulipas district of the state of Tamaulipas.

Emperor William of Germany, had given $25,000 for the relief of the most severe flood sufferers.

MATERIALS FOR FOR AUTUMN SUITS ARE VARIED

Broadcloths, mixtures, serges and cord weaves are the materials for the coat makers for the late season. And for dress coats velvets and moires are going to be worn. This includes plain and corded velvets and velours. Braid trimmings and jet trimmings are the most popular, and for coat collar facings moire, bengaline and ottoman silk are used a great deal.

YOKES APPEAR ON SHIRT WAISTS FOR EARLY AUTUMN

Among shirt waists there are some attractive styles for autumn. In regard to materials, you have the same wide range of choice that you enjoyed through the summer—the addition of flannels and the heavier silks. Many women wear wash shirt waists through the winter, with a couple of woolen or silk ones for the very cold days.

A pretty striped taffeta shirt waist which was brought over from Paris recently had straight shoulder yokes in the fronts and three deep tucks down either side of the center front box plait with tiny tucks filling the rest of the fronts. The small tucks were released above the bust to give a slight fullness.

Quite a number of shirt waists are being made with yokes, either fancy shaped or straight. And in many waists which are more dressy than shirt waists, one sees the yoke idea. On one tucked waist of cornflower crepe there was a yoke of front and back cut in one piece and extending over the shoulder in a rather broad strip down the length of each sleeve. In another one, the yoke extended down the center front of the waist like a plastron, and made a very charming style.
